DEMOCRATS PLEDGE SUPPORT TO TICKET

Harmony Prevails at Big Meeting in City Hall—Party Planning Ratification Meeting For Near Future.

Harmony prevailed at a rousing meeting of the local democrats held in the city hall Wednesday evening. Practically all of the nominees elected Tuesday were in attendance together with a large number of party workers and friends.

J. Fred Bingham, candidate for city judge, called the meeting to order and presided. He announced that preparations were going on for a big ratification meeting to be held at the call of the city chairman at an early date. The meeting is understood will be for the purpose of ratifying the candidates selected at Tuesday's primary and also for the purpose of completing arrangements for the coming campaign.

The democrats have secured the vacant store room in the Ostrander block as headquarters for the coming campaign and it is said that the big ratification meeting may be the first to be held in new rooms. Following a general discussion of the primary and the coming campaign Chairman Bingham spoke a few words to the assembled democrats. He then called on the following democrats and the following responded with talks: Mayor John A. Herzog, City Attorney Isaac Kane Parks, City Clerk James Kennedy, City Treasurer Joseph Ganser, Councilmen Burkhardt and Roesgenman, George Raab, Frank Lenhard, Edward Mason, Vern Grafmiller, Ernest Waldner, George Zimmerman, Henry Schmidt and several others.

All of the talks were in line with the effort to be put forth by all in the coming election. The candidates as well as the others pledged themselves to work to the utmost of their ability for the success of the party in November. Democrats at the meeting expressed themselves as highly pleased with the personnel of the ticket, nominated Tuesday. They regard it as a winner and will put forth their best efforts to elect each and every nominee.

DEMOCRATS PLURALITY OVER INDEPENDENTS

Carry City in Primaries With About 170 — Independents With Amalgamation Have a Poor Showing.

Over half the total vote of Mishawaka was cast at the first city primaries held here Tuesday. This is far above the expectation of all party leaders of the city. More interest was shown at this year's primary than at the county primary held last year. Democratic candidates and friends are well pleased at the outcome and harmony prevails throughout their ranks, which will be thoroughly demonstrated Wednesday evening when they will meet in a mass meeting at the city hall and ratify the nominations made Tuesday.

Their choice for mayor was Hon. M. W. Mix, president of the Dodge Manufacturing company, who has twice served in the city council. Mr. Mix, shortly after the city was incorporated, and who was greatly instrumental in placing the city as one of the foremost of its size in the state. For clerk, James L. Kennedy, the present official, was selected; likewise for treasurer, Joseph Ganser, who has neither served time nor efforts in guarding the city's funds.

J. Fred Bingham was the party's choice for city judge. Mr. Bingham is a young man of sterling qualities, and has presided in a number of cases during the past several years. David P. Burkhardt and Edward Schmitt, shortly after the city was incorporated, and who was greatly instrumental in placing the city as one of the foremost of its size in the state. For clerk, James L. Kennedy, the present official, was selected; likewise for treasurer, Joseph Ganser, who has neither served time nor efforts in guarding the city's funds.

In the first ward Robert G. Priem was named and as a laboring man's candidate will put forth every effort for their behalf. He is a stalwart democrat and well known contractor, was chosen in the Second ward. He has served as trustee of the old town board, which will aid him very materially in filling the duties of his office. Geo. P. Zimmerman, the well known printer, carried the closest fight of the day, carried his ward by one vote. His success was due to his labors in behalf of the party for a number of years. Vernon Grafmiller, a well known employee of the Mishawaka Woolen Co., carried off the laurels in the Fourth ward, and will render the same faithful service as in the past as a servant of the public.

In the Fifth ward Richard Roesgenman, the present representative of that ward in the New York for Oct. 7 in the southern district. Lamar's counsel announced that Lamar will not return to New York for trial on the habeas corpus proceedings in the District of Columbia courts would first insist on a determination here of the merits of the New York indictments against Lamar. BOY SICK WITH DIPHTHERIA STILL LIES IN JAIL CELL

James Morris, 18-year-old boy, is still suffering with diphtheria in the "bull pen" at the police station where he came down with the disease Tuesday morning.

Authorities of the board of health say that they have no legal right to admit the boy to the isolation hospital, while the county infirmary directors claim that they are not compelled to take him. In the meantime the police are unable to do anything but give him a place to lie, on the dingy bench in the quarters where winter tramp lodgers are given shelter on cold nights.

Chief of Police Bunker said the case brings out the need for either a county or city hospital. Neither the city nor the county has a place to take care of cases of this nature.

The boy spent the night in chills as the station was supplied with only a single comforter. Food was carried to him in the evening but during the night the police did not go to the room, fearing to expose themselves. They called up to him occasionally to keep informed of his condition.

Wednesday morning a policeman on the day force carried food to him at noon. Dr. J. B. Berteling sent a mattress and comforters and a cot to the station and they were taken to him.

Dr. Berteling claims that if the man is taken to the isolation hospital the germs will remain in the building defying disinfection. Authorities refuse to let him enter the county infirmary. Dr. Rosenbury is attending the boy.

BRAZIL, Ind.—Albert Harrison, of Knightville, had a bullet removed from his brain in an operation Monday. He was shot by his son while the two were hunting. He will probably recover.

LAMAR "WOLF" OF WALL STREET, IS BOUND TO JURY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—David Lamar, the wolf of Wall st., Wednesday was held for the action of the New York grand jury by Judge Anson Taylor, United States commissioner, on a charge of impersonating congressmen to financiers in Wall st. He was released on $3,000 bond.

Lamar's attorneys said they would start habeas corpus proceedings in a few days.

Judge Taylor fixed the date of Lamar's hearing in New York for Oct. 7 in the southern district.

Lamar's counsel announced that Lamar will not return to New York for trial on the habeas corpus proceedings in the District of Columbia courts would first insist on a determination here of the merits of the New York indictments against Lamar.

The habeas corpus proceedings for Lamar's removal to New York pending a decision of the courts here.

The indictments against Lamar charged "The Wolf" with having defrauded J. P. Morgan and company and the U. S. steel corporation by having impersonated an official of the senate, namely A. P. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania. Counsel for Lamar claimed that a congressman is not an officer of the U. S.

Commissioner Taylor in his opinion held "that the demarcation between a senator and a congressman is not an official of the United States was indeed slight" and rejected Lamar's plea that the U. S. commissioner was without jurisdiction.

SULZER FREE TO USE DONATIONS AS HE DESIRES

(CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE.) 5, 1912, to thank him for his assistance in bringing about Sulzer's nomination. He added:

"We talked about the general situation and while talking I either made out a check myself or had my clerk make out a check for $1,000 and I signed and handed it to the governor. He said to me, 'I didn't expect that from you. I don't want it because you are doing so much for the national committee.'"

"I said however, I did want to help him, and he took the check."

Attack Is Intimated. Intimation of an attack, it is reported, the governor will make upon Tammany hall in presenting his side of the case came at the very outset of the testimony Wednesday when Attorney Marshall Spaulding of State said in his files a campaign report of the general committee of Tammany hall. Mr. May replied that no such report had officially come to his notice, and that he was unaware that any such report had been filed.

Suggestion that the endorsement of the governor's signature on some of the alleged campaign checks was not genuine came when Thomas M. Godwin, paying teller of the Farmers Loan & Trust company, New York, testified that the signature on the checks of Lyman A. Spaulding of $100 and Abram L. Elkus for $500 disclosed "sufficient irregularity to warrant my investigating before paying it."

Godwin, who without hesitation identified the check and Spaulding as the man who had deposited by Mr. Sulzer with his concern, declined at first to express an opinion on the authenticity of the Elkus and Spaulding checks.

SECY. DANIELS MAKES APPEAL FOR PATRIOTISM

liberty of the press in attack upon the government can never be permitted to weaken the authority of the nation's responsible head dealing with a foreign power.

"The older nations of the world have learned during their centuries of experience the vital necessity of having their foreign policies supported by a united public and press. What we in America yield as a patriotic duty, they in the old world countries expect not only through patriotism, but as a matter of honor obligation from the individual to the state."

Enemies Become Friends. "Those two great nations, England and France, were for centuries at war until they regarded each other as traditional enemies. But the day came not long ago when the wise councils of a British king and a French president evolved that notable compact known as the 'Entente cordiale.' Not a journal in London, Paris or New York of either country withheld its support and praise for that international policy by which two great nations, historic enemies, became friends."

"It is just as much of a violation of the law for dealers to furnish their tobacco on these orders as it is to sell it to them direct, and as the school authorities are anxious to do all that is possible to eliminate the smoking of young boys, I would ask you to give publicity to the above matter that in order that dealers may be aware of their violation of the law and that such excuses will not be received in prosecutions for such violations."

LADS MAKE EXCUSES TO PURCHASE TOBACCO

Prosecutor Issues Statement That Dealers Are Liable to be Prosecuted For Sales.

ELKHART, Ind., Sept. 24.—Finding that cigar smoking was an altogether too frequent habit among Elkhart school boys, Prosecutor G. R. Sawyer Wednesday declared war on dealers who illegally dispense them.

A number of boys have been caught smoking loitering in the alleys near the school building and upon being questioned have admitted that they secured the tobacco by misrepresentation to the dealers.

Mr. Sawyer issued the following statement: "It has come to my attention in investigating the sale of cigars to school boys that in a number of instances they have secured cigars and tobacco from dealers by representing to the dealers that they wanted the tobacco for father or that some other person had sent them after it and in some instances have written notes purporting to be written by their parents or some other person asking them to give them tobacco, or what ever the boy wanted."

"There is a sensitiveness between nations, supposed slights are often more potent in provoking war than wrongs or injustice. If the American press publishes what unjustly inflames the American mind against another nation, it is not to be expected that a sensational press of the country will copy such inflammatory utterances and reply in kind? Such publications may be like supplying a burning match to a mass of combustibles. If the conflagration follows who except the writers editors dug the graves that war causes?"

REFUSED ADMITTANCE TO SCHOOL, BOY SUES

Frank DeFrees Is Barred From Nappanee High School Because of Alleged Doings.

ELKHART, Ind., Sept. 24.—The expulsion of a pupil from the Nappanee public schools for "boyish pranks" and refusal to allow him to reenter the school at the beginning of a new school year, has caused the filing of a mandamus suit in the superior court.

The pranks complained of were the putting up of a 1914 pennant on the town's water tank while the senior class was producing a play in the Nappanee opera house last May, and the painting of numerals on the cupola of the school house. Frank DeFrees, son of Henry DeFrees of Jefferson township, Kosciusko county, was accused of the "prank," and then suspended.

No attempt was made to get him back in the school for the remainder of the 1913 term, but he was again transferred from Kosciusko county, and sent to the Nappanee school this fall. He was denied admission by the "teachers and superintendent on account of his former conduct." It is averred, therefore, the mandamus proceedings.

The title of the case is, "State of Indiana on relation of Henry DeFrees against Albert Mutschler, Willard Ford and Harvey Coppers, board of school trustees of the school town of Nappanee." Perry L. Turner represents Mr. DeFrees.
